Dear pastor Gene Rowell and church brethren,

We praise God for your sacrificial love and thank you for constantly holding the rope for us to reach the Myanmar people with the Gospel. As it is the rainy season in Myanmar, the weather poses challenges when moving around, but with His sustaining grace, the Lord's work continues.

We praise God for the successful one-day training on practical personal and church finance taught by the veteran pastor. Our members have been encouraged and strengthened in their ability to manage financial blessings in a way that furthers the Gospel.

Additionally, we thank the Lord for providing funds to purchase good-quality Burmese Bibles. These Bibles were given to new believers as part of discipleship efforts, and we shared them with missionary pastors who were in desperate need. Thank you for your heart of giving to the Lord's work. Your labor is not in vain.

Furthermore, we rejoice in the power of the Gospel, as seen in the newly planted Living Water Baptist Church at Thatapin. Our church was able to help start this church. I visited the church by God's grace and conducted a Bible training session with the members. It is led by one of my former students, Nay Chi Oo, and his family. Many members were nominal Christians in a liberal church, some even Buddhists, but they have now received Jesus Christ as their Savior and no longer fear death, knowing where they will go after they die. Currently, they meet in a member's home, but they have land to construct a simple church building. They are praying and saving towards this goal, and our church has set some funds to assist them. We do need your help. Would you please consider helping with a one-time church-building gift? We estimated that with US$ 3500.00, we can build a meeting place for this congregation. We are committed to ensuring that all funds are used as intended.

Recently, heavy rains caused flooding in some parts of Myanmar, leading loss of life and property. We thank God for enabling us to show His love by providing essential supplies to those affected, particularly in Naypyidaw area. A pastor friend and his members actively helped distribute these supplies.

We humbly request your prayers for the following:

- That we may bring glory and honor to our Almighty God through our lives and by winning souls for His kingdom.
- That God will use faithful believers like you to provide for the church-building fund of Living Water Baptist Church building funds.
- That God will bring peace to our country for His glory.

Thank you for your ongoing support and prayers. May the Lord continue to bless you.

*Your co-laborers for souls,
Abraham, Deborah, Nathan and Jerusha*
